

Question Formulation Technique (QFT) - Companion

Produce many questions, improve them, prioritize them, and decide how they will be used.

QUESTION FOCUS (QFOCUS) _____

NAME / GROUP _____

1. PRODUCE QUESTIONS

Generate as many questions as you can before evaluating or answering them. Record questions in the form they are asked.

2. WORK WITH QUESTIONS

Mark questions that invite short/fixed answers and those that invite explanation. Try changing the form of at least two questions.

3. PRIORITIZE

Choose the questions that best fit your purpose. Explain why these questions deserve priority.
