

Case-Based Learning - Case Analysis

Use disciplinary ideas to analyze a realistic situation and justify a recommendation.

CASE

NAME / TEAM

|                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| CENTRAL ISSUE What decision, conflict, problem, or question is at the heart of the case?       | RELEVANT FACTS Which details matter? Separate evidence from assumptions.        | STAKEHOLDERS / PERSPECTIVES Who is affected and what might each person or group value?           |
| OPTIONS What reasonable actions or interpretations are available?                              | RECOMMENDATION + EVIDENCE What should happen, and why is that choice defensible?           | WHAT COULD CHANGE OUR MIND? Missing information, risks, or new evidence that would matter.       |