

Perspective-Taking Organizer

Explore a viewpoint carefully without pretending you know more than the evidence supports.

TOPIC / SITUATION

NAME

VIEWPOINT

Whose or what perspective are you exploring?

WHAT I CAN REASONABLY INFER

What might this person/role perceive, know, value, fear, or need?

WHAT I STILL NEED TO LEARN

What information would help you understand this perspective more responsibly?

MY OWN LENS

What assumptions, experiences, or values might shape how I am interpreting this?
